6 Midhampton Now and Then

This is an exhibition comparing the changing scenes of Midhampton over the past 100 years. You can try your hand at the old local skill of lace making. See how Southshire has changed in our display of photos and paintings which explore the past.

December free entrance

7 Housework

Find out how people lived 90 years ago.

What was it like to help mum with the washing every week? Handle and examine the equipment used before washing machines were invented.

For a complete list of all Southshire's other museums and their opening times look for the Southshire Museums leaflet in your local library.

WELCOME TO THE MIDHAMPTON MUSEUM

CHILDREN'S SPECIAL EVENTS PROGRAMME JUNE - DECEMBER

Special events and activities to bring back memories

Come and see for yourself

- how great granny and grandad dressed
- what they played
- how they lived

Bring along your parents and grandparents

1

June →
* free entrance

1 Clothes

Come and dress up in great grandad's clothes. Try on a cook's apron or a gardener's boots. Have your photograph taken in black and white.

Did people really dress like this?

July →
* £1 to cover costs

2 Food

Have a go at making jam tarts and home made bread using traditional recipes. Everything has to be done by hand – no microwave ovens; no mixers and definitely no take aways!

2

Have a go at making jam tarts

3 Toys and Noise

Our large display areas mean that there is space to have fun with toys from yesteryear. Come and try our genuine collection.
