

What Am I?

I can fly in the air by fluttering my wings.

I am smaller than your hand.

If you look carefully, you will see that I am many different colours.

For my food, I drink delicious nectar from flowers.

I have six legs and two antennae.

At first I came out of an egg.

I was a caterpillar and then a chrysalis.

I am a ...

butterfly

