

2022 national curriculum tests

Key stage 1

English grammar, punctuation and spelling

Administering Paper 1: spelling

CONFIDENTIAL

The optional English grammar, punctuation and spelling test can be administered during May 2022.

The confidentiality and integrity of the test must be maintained until Wednesday 1 June. The test must not be shared or made available outside your school before this date.

Please ensure you have read and understood the 2022 test administration guidance before administering the test.

For test administration

2022 key stage 1 English grammar, punctuation and spelling test

The key stage 1 English grammar, punctuation and spelling test consists of 2 papers. The papers must be administered in order. Pupils do not have to sit both papers on the same day. If both papers are administered on the same day, pupils may benefit from a break between papers. Both papers can be administered to the whole class, smaller groups of pupils or on an individual basis. All test materials, including unused test papers, must be stored securely until Wednesday 1 June.

Paper 1: spelling

The following information explains how to administer the key stage 1 English grammar, punctuation and spelling test Paper 1: spelling. If you have any questions, you should check with your headteacher or key stage 1 test co-ordinator before you administer the test. The transcript for administration of the test is included in these instructions.

Please follow these instructions correctly to ensure the test is properly administered.

Format	Paper 1: spelling consists of an answer booklet for pupils to complete and a test transcript to be read by the test administrator. The transcript is included in this guidance. It is expected that Paper 1 will take approximately 15 minutes to complete, but it is not strictly timed. It is at your discretion to choose when, or if, a pupil requires a break during the test or whether, if appropriate, to stop the test early.
Equipment	Each pupil will need the equipment specified below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a pencil or blue or black pen a rubber (optional) If rubbers are not provided, tell pupils that they should cross out any answers they wish to change. Highlighter pens may be used if this is normal classroom practice. Pupils are not allowed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> dictionaries electronic spell checkers bilingual word lists or electronic translators
Assistance	Pupils should not require any assistance during the administration of Paper 1: spelling. You must ensure that nothing you say or do during the test could be interpreted as giving pupils an advantage, for example, indicating that an answer is correct or incorrect, or suggesting the pupil look at an answer again. You should take care not to overemphasise spelling when reading out the words that pupils need to spell. There is no specific hearing impairment guidance for this test, but be careful when signing to ensure you do not convey information that could give pupils an advantage. If this paper is presented through sign language, finger spelling must not be used. Guidance for administering the test to pupils with a visual impairment is contained in the relevant modified test pack.
Before the test begins	Review the list of pupils with any particular individual needs, for example, pupils who may need support from a scribe or a transcript made at the end of the test.
What to do at the start of the test	Check seating is appropriately spaced and that no pupil can see another pupil's test paper. Check pupils do not have mobile phones or other disruptive items. Check pupils do not have any materials or equipment that may give them extra help. Ensure each pupil has a copy of Paper 1: spelling.

How to introduce the test

It is important to brief pupils fully at the start of each test. Use these instructions to introduce Paper 1: spelling.

The wording of these instructions can be adapted, provided the meaning is retained.

*This is the English grammar, punctuation and spelling test
Paper 1: spelling.*

The test will take around 15 minutes.

You should have Paper 1: spelling in front of you.

Write your name on the front of your answer booklet.

When we are doing the test, if you want to change an answer, you should rub it out or put a line through the answer you do not want to be marked.

You need to work on your own. You should think of your own answers and you must not talk about them with anyone else.

Do you have any questions?

Now turn to page 2.

There is 1 practice question that we'll do together.

Read the practice spelling to the pupils.

The word is when.

When is sports day?*

The word is when.

Check all pupils have understood that 'when' should be written in the first blank space.

Explain that you will now read the rest of the sentences and the missing words.

Leave at least a 12-second gap between spellings.

The target words may be repeated if needed.

The 20 spellings should be read as follows:

1. Give the spelling number
2. Say: The word is...
3. Read the context sentence
4. Repeat: The word is...

You should take care not to overemphasise spelling when reading out the words.
